

Announcements

1. Join us for an online Meet and Greet via Zoom after today's service. Join us around 12:10 p.m. by going to www.zoom.us, and type in the meeting I.D.: 869 8967 6238
2. Rev. Paula is hosting an online study of the book "White Fragility: Why White People Are Afraid to Talk About Race," by Robin DiAngelo, from 7-9 p.m. on Wednesdays starting Sept. 16. Order your books now! The class will be conducted on Zoom, with sign-on information provided next week. The book can be purchased on amazon or most local book retailers.
3. The Community Outreach Team is collecting certain types of school supplies to help kids get back to learning in the Fall. Please bring in loose leaf paper, spiral notebooks, pencils, erasers and pencil sharpeners. You may bring your donations to church on Sundays.
4. Community Outreach's "Breakfast on the Streets" needs volunteers to serve breakfast to the homeless the first and third Saturdays of each month. To volunteer or for more details, call Kitty Penny at 757-418-2361. Covid-19 safety protocols are in place.
5. Many email scams are happening these days. If you receive a gmail from Rev. Paula or anyone else from the church asking you to purchase a gift card or take similar action, please do not do so. They are not legitimate. In general, carefully check the email address from anyone in your contact list to determine whether it is really from them. When in doubt, check with the person whose name is being used.
